The Report

After a number of months with just virtual meetings, CASACC could proudly say that they had put their darkest days behind them. This month's meetup would finally be in person. The days of door dashed curry with no complimentary poppadoms and chutney were no more. How long can a man go without complimentary poppadoms and chutney? I don't know the real answer, but I am sure the club was close to finding out due to a worsening addiction that has grown over the years.

For the meetup, the club would first convene at Madtree for pre-drinks where there was an excellent showing of members. After the pre-drinks, the club would move on to Baba India. According to the archives(casacc.com), the club last met at this particular restaurant back in June 2019 with a score of 8.12. The missing the mark by almost a full point could mainly be attributed to the endless wave of takeout orders the restaurant was dealing with. This is no excuse, as one member put it, to not show the club the respect it deserved.

Overall the food was rated as good with a few commenting it could have been better. Although there were some hiccups, it was fantastic to be in person again following club traditions.

The Good

- The staff was not respectful to Leom when he entered the restaurant
- Food was on target for spice levels
- No zoom or google meet calls to be found

The Bad

- Low amount of staff causing service to be a little rough and mainly busy with takeout orders
- Taste was good but they snuck in fake cheese to replace the chicken

The Ugly

- Chutni in plastic containers... weird
