General Comments:
For May 2021 the CASACC moved back into Kentucky to sample the “south of the border” curry. Pre-dinner libations were at the aptly named “Sit ‘n Bull”. Turnout was very light with only 3 participants showing up for pre-dinner drinks. The beer was cold, but the place was full of smoke. (I didn’t think they did that indoors in KY, but maybe in Campbell County or in Bars?) Dinner was a better show at 6 members that braved the traffic and hazardous river crossing to make it to “Jot India Restaurant”, a relatively new place in Newport next to Newport Racing and Gaming casino, which probably would have been a much better place for pre-dinner drinks. Speaking of drinks, the restaurant was without a liquor license, but we were informed and a couple of members came prepared with cold beer in coolers that the management was happy to let us consume. Poppadoms were not on the menu, but President Bosma was able to curry favour with the owner who made them up special for us; complimentary of course. The curry house was new and clean, including the bathroom, but was sparsely decorated causing a loss of points for ambiance. The food was decent but the spice level was very low causing additional point loss. The server was very jovial and was happy to do whatever he could to make the dining experience better. Overall a good curry quest with decent food and better company.
